DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Hillsdale Happenings.

Rev. Washington, pastor of Hillsdale Station, has so far recovered from his recent illness as to again occupy his pulpit.

The village refuses to be behind the times, even if they do try to locate cemeteries in its midst. The Hillsdale Tennis Club is a thoroughly up to date organization, comprising as it does, some of our best known and most cultured young men and women. They practice faithfully, and some of the members may justly be ranked among the best players in the District of Columbia.

The Messrs. Lucas, we understand, were the originators, and are the most enthusiastic promoters of this club. Mr. M. Lucas also belongs to a Tennis club across the river.

It can rain harder in this vicinity than anywhere else as the car loads of people who came to the village last Tuesday night can testify—the white dresses and white linen suits which were the sport of aquarists were diverting indeed to beholders—Eureka Park had been gay all day; but at night—how sad!

Mrs. Nicholson (nee Benford) is visiting friends in the village.

Mr. Liverpool has two charming ladies visiting him in the persons of Miss Dickson and her pleasant friend.

Messrs. Quarles and Delaney who have been ill for quite a while are rapidly on the mend.

Mrs. Lyles is spending a few days in the village. She will return to White Oak Pleasant, Prince George county, Md. in a few days.

Rev. W. H. Newby, who has a charge at Newburgh, N. Y., left the village for his pastorate last Wednesday.

While generally opposed to all night excursions, THE BEE hopes that those who go to Annapolis may enjoy themselves. Of course, no young ladies will go unattended by relatives.

Many garden parties and such outdoor amusements are in order, the projects of which are notified that THE BEE's job printing office turns out the best work in Washington. Give us a call.

There is a notary and attorney at 1109 I street, who will attend to all your legal affairs. Make a note of this.

At Union Wesley church last Sunday, Mrs. L. Thurman, superintendent of Woman's Christian Temperance Union, made an interesting and impressive address after the morning service. At 3 o'clock the pastor and his flock visited John Wesley, where the Rev. Geo. Adams had been invited to preach. The pastor conducted the evening services, and his discourse was listened to by an unusually large congregation.

The bush meeting at Washington View drew a large attendance all day last Sunday. Rev. Coakley at 11 a. m. spoke from 2d Corinthians, chapter 9, verse 16; at 3 p. m., Rev. Davis discoursed upon "Christian Love," and at 8 p. m. Rev. Stewart of the A. M. E. Connection, occupied the pulpit. The song service was excellent.

Rev. Wm. Gibbons was called to Charlottesville, Va. last Monday to conduct the funeral service over the remains of a deceased friend.

THE BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

The 25th annual meeting of the First Baptist Association of Washington, D. C., convened with the Third Baptist Church of this city, corner of Q and 5th sts., on Tuesday the 14, 1896, with the moderator, Rev. J. C. Dent, in the chair, who is his own successive successor and the Rev. J. I. Loving, secretary; and Deacon Wm. L. Laws, treasurer. The introduction sermon was ably delivered by the Rev. Joseph Matthews, Luke 14: 23.

At the conclusion of which the committee on nominations was appointed, consisting of Rev. R. Johnson, D. D., Wm. P. Gibbons, Ph. D., J. H. Lee, W. Waller, and J. W. Cross, who reported the following for the next year: Rev. D. Morris, J. A. Taylor, James A. Taylor, James H. Lee, B. M. Brown, W. A. Credit, R. Johnson, D. D., and A. H. Catlett. The doctrinal sermon was preached on Tuesday evening by the Rev. J. H. Lee, from acts 2: 41, 42; subject: steadfastness in the doctrine of Jesus Christ.

On Wednesday evening, sermon by the Rev. J. I. Loving, on the work of Missions, from Isaiah 45, 21; subject, Our great Redeemer of the redemption of the World through the gospel of Jesus Christ. His very close touch with the elements of Biblical theology, compelled the admission of his superior ability. His exegetical illustrations were comprehensive, and his conclusions were sublime.

Miss Wall is well known among the best and most cultured society in this city. Mr. Moore, of the most popular young men in this city, and a young man of fine business qualifications. The BEE which placed the genial Mr. Moore among the list of bachelors in its issue some time ago has been compelled by the combination of Cupid's matrimonial arrows to place him among the modern bridegrooms. Rev. W. H. Newby, recently pastor of Union Wesley, A. M. E. Church, was in town last week, as the guest of Mrs. Lethia Johnson, of Hillsdale. He says that the account of his reception, which appeared in THE BEE, together with the poem prepared for the occasion, by Prof. S. G. Brown, preceded him to the place of his present charge and benefitted him to a degree. The council of ladies appointed to adjust his salary arranged a reception committee with the report of the one given him at Washington, declaring that they intended not to be outdone by the Capital city. Six hundred dollars per annum is his present salary, exclusive of a finely furnished parsonage. He left for his charge last Wednesday, at Newburgh, N. Y.

Zion Church, to the several local poets to submit poems in competition for the gold medal to be awarded the best poetical composition on One Hundred Years of Zion Methodist. Bishop A. Walter, 353 Blueker st., N. Y. City, will receive the manuscripts.

A few lights along 15th st., east, from B to C south, would greatly improve that neighborhood.

Rev. R. V. Peyton, Pastor of the Mt. Heron Baptist Church, was out in Virginia to Mt. Pleasant on Sunday last, where he cares for the interests of that church.

The annual picnic of the Mt. Heron Baptist Church and Sunday School, enjoyed the best of time on Thursday last, at Scagg's woods.
